

Director, Clinical Services

- State-wide senior executive role, Tasmania
- Career development opportunity
- Lifestyle to inspire

Ambulance Tasmania, through a network of 45 urban, rural and remote ambulance stations, provides integrated high quality care via its Patient Transport State-wide, Medical Retrieval, Community Transport and Emergency & Medical Services to the people of Tasmania. Working closely with public and private hospitals and health facilities providers, Ambulance Tasmania is now moving into an exciting new era and is seeking to appoint this key executive position.

The Director, Clinical Services acts as a key advisor to the CEO, Ambulance Tasmania and has responsibility for the clinical development, education, governance, research and patient safety program for Ambulance Tasmania. Leading the Clinical Services Unit, the Director, Clinical Services sets the framework, standards, protocols and professional training for the work of more than 800 salaried and volunteer clinicians, undertaking almost 70,000 responses per year.

To be successful in this role, you should have:

- Extensive clinical experience as a practicing medical practitioner
- Demonstrated capacity to lead multi-disciplinary teams, manage staff and work effectively at the senior executive level
- A strong understanding of clinical governance, clinical services redesign, patient safety, research, root cause analysis, new and emerging technologies, curriculum development and quality programs
- Significant experience in ambulance operations would be an advantage.
