

OPPORTUNITY. EXPERIENCE. LIFESTYLE.

Make your next career move to sunny Queensland, Australia

Medical Officers (Senior Registrars, Fellows, Registrars) (Intensive Care)

Throughout Queensland, over 25,000 patients a year are admitted to 19 public and 16 private intensive care units, for acute, life threatening, medical conditions.

In joining our Intensive Care Training Program, you will participate in an intensive care rotation to provide critical care under supervision. You will acquire the necessary skills and knowledge to satisfy relevant specialist colleges and medical board requirements in order to practice as an intensive care specialist in Australia.

Remuneration value up to A$171 008 p.a., comprising salary between A$107 141 - A$118 062 p.a. (L10-L13) or Remuneration value up to A$147 438 p.a., comprising salary between A$84 010 - A$97 404 p.a. (L4-L9), employer contribution to superannuation (up to 12.75%), annual leave loading (17.5%), vocational training subsidy, professional indemnity cover plus overtime and on-call allowances (for 12 months from February 2011).

Job Ad Reference: H10HL05128.

Enquiries: Helen Berkeley-Kelly +61 7 3131 6887
Email: QldICUTraining@health.qld.gov.au

Application Kit: www.health.qld.gov.au/medical/careers/intensive_care.asp

Closing Date: Friday, 18 June 2010.

NOTE: In addition to applying for a placement on this training program, you must also lodge an application for allocation to a position in Queensland Health through the RMO Recruitment Campaign at www.health.qld.gov.au/medical/rmoinfo.asp between 22 June 2010 and 19 July 2010.

For more information about living and working in Queensland visit:
www.health.qld.gov.au/workforus